DEATH GUARD

Death Guard (FACTION VALUE 400)

Grave Wardens – They possess the ability to launch toxic Chem-munitons: Ignore armor saves in close combat (only invulnerable saves apply).

Deathshroud Terminators – Their flamers are actually Chem-weapons, double save modifier versus infantry targets.

DEATH GUARD

CHARACTERISTICS

Infantry is King – The Death Guard hold the space marine legionnaire as its ultimate weapon. Therefore 50% of the legions points total must go to Legionnaire companies of which there must be at least one destroyer formation.

Heavy Support – All Death Guard infantry ignore the to-hit penalty for targets in cover.

Heavy Siege Tanks – The Death guard favor the use of Spartan tanks, Vindicators and super heavy Fellblades. These favored formations are reduced in cost by 50 points for a standard company and 50 points for a grand company card. Variants can be fielded as support only if the company of the favored vehicles are present at full cost.

Fast Attack Disfavor – Given the Death Guards favor for attritional combat, jump pack troops, Sky Hunter jet bikes and outrider bikes are considered special cards (not support cards). May not use deep strike ability.

Remorseless – All Death Guard infantry formations gain the Idomitable and stubborn ability.

Intractable – Ponderous as they are unstoppable, all Death Guard formations receive a -5cm penalty to their total move when on charge orders. Does not affect jump pack troops

Rad Resistant - Death Guard are immune to radiation effects.

Implacable – All Death Guard formations gain move through cover ability

Superior Firepower - Death Guard Heavy support fire legionnaires do not gain long range penalties.

Chem Weapons – All flamers are Chem-flamers, receive extra -1 save modifier to weapon.

Librarius – Mortarion was vehemently against the use of the Librarius. The Death Guard may not use Librarius sections.
